www.secsports.com

The Southeastern Conference has an extensive presence on the World Wide Web.

SEC football information can be accessed on the Web at www.secsports.com.

Football information is updated with new material daily on the page, with standings, statistics, game previews, notes and other information.

The SEC football release can also be printed off of the secsports.com website in an Adobe Acrobat file. Adobe Reader, which is used to read the Adobe Acrobat file, can be downloaded for free on your computer on the adobe.com website.

Media TeamLink System

The weekly SEC football release, including standings, statistics, players of the week, superlatives and previews is distributed to the SEC's 12 SID offices each Monday morning during the regular season. In addition, standings and statistics are available on the league's Media TeamLink System late each Sunday afternoon.

Media TeamLink offers a media user the ability to choose which documents they would like to set for automatic delivery, then, as soon as the document is updated - it is sent to the specified e-mail inbox or fax machine (user as the choice). A user will have five delivery choices: (1) immediate email; (2) immediate fax; (3) email at next update; (4) fax at next update; (5) email notification of a document update.

You must also have the Adobe Reader downloaded on your computer to open these documents on e-mail.

Members of the media can subscribe to this service by either logging on to www.mediateamlink.com or calling Pivotal Communications at (770) 399-0096.

WHO'S BACK, WHO'S NOT

Four of the 12 SEC schools return less than half of its starters from last season – Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Miss. State. Going into this season, Vanderbilt and Ole Miss return the most starters (21) while the Miss. State returns the least (10). Alabama and Vanderbilt return nine starters on offense while Vanderbilt returns 10 starters on defense, the most on both sides of the ball in the conference.

SEC - NUMBER ONE IN THE 90s

In the decade of the 1990s, the Southeastern Conference has posted the best non-conference record of any Division I-A league. Including this season, the SEC is 273-92-5 in non-conference games since 1990, a 74.4 winning percentage. The closest conference to the SEC is the Atlantic Coast, which has a 195-101-4 record, a 65.7 winning percentage. The SEC also has more bowl wins (30) than any other conference in the 1990s and has the best winning percentage in bowl games of any active conference in post-season bowls in the 1990s (60.0). Take a look at the numbers below:

Conference	W-L-T	Pct.	Bowl Record	Pct.

Overall Records include bowl games/ #-Final year of conference play was 1995.

SEC PRODUCES NATIONAL TITLE CONTENDERS

In the seven years of existence, the SEC Championship Game has put five teams in the National Championship Game. This year, Tennessee won the national title in the Fiesta Bowl, defeating Florida State, 23-16. Last year, the Vols played Nebraska in the Bowl Alliance National Championship Game in the Orange Bowl. Florida won the national title in 1996 and played for the Bowl Alliance National Championship against Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl following the 1995 season. Alabama won the national title in 1992.

SEC PLAYS TOUGHEST SCHEDULE IN NATION

The Southeastern Conference played the third toughest regular season schedule in the country, according to the Bowl Championship Series Schedule Strength formula. In the formula, teams are measured by using its opponent's cumulative record and the opponents' opponents cumulative record. All Non-Division I-A wins were deleted.

The Pac-10 Conference played the nation's toughest schedule with a 55.45 percentage followed by the Big 12 Conference with a 54.23 percentage. The SEC came in third at 53.29 percent. Auburn played the nation's toughest schedule according to the BCS formula.

The columns below show the ranking of each team and the BCS Schedule Strength percentage as well as each team's oppoents' cumulative record.

	BCS SCHEDULE STRENGTH	OPPONENT RECORD
Auburn	1 (62.26)	74-34 (68.52)

Note: First SEC season for Arkansas and South Carolina was 1992. Previously Arkansas was a member of Southwest Conference and South Carolina was independent in football. Final AP Poll consisted of 20 teams 1984-88 and 25 teams 1989-94. Records indicate forfeits imposed on Alabama.

SEC DIVISIONS

The 5-2-1 schedule format, implemented in 1992, allows each school to play all five division opponents along with two permanent and one rotating non-division opponent each year. Schools will play each rotating non-division opponent two years (home and away) before the next opponent appears on its schedule. This ensures every SEC member plays at least twice during an eight-year period.

Division alignment and schedule format follows:

SEC Championship Game

December 4

The SEC's Eastern and Western Division winners will meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series. The eighth-annual title game is set for December 4 and will again be nationally televised by ABC Sports at 8:00 p.m. ET.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

A total of 181.7 million viewers have watched the SEC Football Championship Game in its seven years of existence. The 1994 SEC Championship Game earned a 10.5 rating and a 26 share, becoming, at the time, the highest-rated football game since the 1991 season. It is also the highest rated SEC Championship Game in history.

The SEC Championship Game has also drawn capacity crowds in its short history. More than 529,000 fans have witnessed first-hand the pageantry of SEC Football at the seven previous Championship Games.

Divisional Representative Tie-Breaker

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative:

All Conference versus Conference Games (both division and non-division) will be counted in the Conference Standings.

A. TWO TEAM TIE

1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. Records of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
4. Overall record versus non-division teams.
5. Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
6. Record versus common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
7. Vote of the Athletic Directors whose institution is not involved in the tie.

B. THREE (OR MORE) TEAM TIE

(Once the tie has been reduced to two teams, go to the two team tie breaker format)

1. Combined head-to-head record among the tied teams.
2. Record of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last.
4. Overall record versus non-division teams.
5. Combined record versus all common non-divisional teams.
6. Record versus common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference (divisional and non-divisional) record and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division.
7. Vote of the Athletic Directors whose institution is not involved in the tie.

SEC Bowl Agreements

The Southeastern Conference has agreements to send seven of its member institutions to postseason bowl games following the 1999 season. The winner of the SEC Championship Game will automatically participate in the Bowl Championship Series comprised of the Sugar, Rose, Orange and Fiesta Bowls. The CompUSA Florida Citrus (2nd), will then make its pick following the BCS selections. The Outback, Chick-fil-A Peach and Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowls will work with the conference office to determine picks 3-5, not in any specific order. In selections 6-7, the Sanford Independence and Music City Bowls will make their selections, not in any specific order, but in consultation with the SEC Office.

1999 Bowl Championship Series Process

Starting last season, the Bowl Championship Series determined the National Championship. Last season, Tennessee defeated Florida State, 24-14, to win the national title.

The BCS consists of the Rose Bowl, Nokia Sugar Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

Any Division I-A independent team or champion of the Western Athletic Conference, Conference USA or any other Division I-A conference which is ranked sixth or higher in the BCS standings, will also be eligible for the Bowl Championship Series.

Otherwise, any Division I-A team can qualify for selection in the BCS if they have won at least 9 college football games during the most recently concluded regular season excluding victories in exempted games, and are ranked among the Top 12 teams in the BCS final regular season standings.

At the conclusion of the 1999 regular season, the Nokia Sugar Bowl will host the National Championship contest. The game will be played on Jan. 4 at 8 p.m. ET in New Orleans, La.

The Nokia Sugar Bowl shall select the top two teams ranked in the BCS final regular season standings.

Also, beginning with the 1999 regular season, each BCS conference is subject to review and possible loss of automatic selection by the BCS should the conference champion not have an average ranking of 12 or higher over a four-year period.

The BCS will uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC or Big East champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

Other BCS bowl games at the conclusion of the 1999 regular season include the Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 2 at 8 p.m. ET, the Orange Bowl on Jan. 1 at 8:30 p.m. ET and the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1 at 5 p.m. ET.

ABC-TV has the broadcast rights to each of the four bowl games during the four-year contract.

The yearly schedule from 1999 to 2002 is as follows:

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The SEC has been a dominant force in the 1990s. The SEC has won 65 national championships during the decade, with 320 individuals also winning national titles. There have been 3,097 first-team All-Americas in the 20-sponsored SEC sports during the 1990s and 1,087 teams have advanced to NCAA post-season play. During the 1998-99 season, SEC teams won an all-time high 10 national titles.

SOUTHEASTERN SEC® CONFERENCE

History of the Southeastern Conference

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference stands ready to advance intercollegiate athletics into the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC.

Throughout its 65-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

Faced with the task of conference realignment after competing with 10 members since 1966, the SEC welcomed the University of Arkansas on Aug. 1, 1990, and the University of South Carolina on Sept. 25, 1990. Joining charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, on July 1, 1991, Arkansas and South Carolina became the first schools added in conference history.

Fully incorporated into conference competition by 1992, Arkansas and South Carolina participated in SEC championships for all sports except football during the 1991-92 academic year. The SEC was again at the forefront, introducing football, basketball and baseball divisional play and the nation's first ever Division I football championship game.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another over 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

Student teams from the schools began meeting in various sports with little pattern to their contests. The American adaptation of the English game rugby, called "football" was drifting down from the East and Midwest. Southerners were quickly attracted to this sport formalized in 1869.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A&M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895 11 current SEC members were playing football.

Basketball moved quickly to the South as Vanderbilt was playing at the Nashville YMCA in 1893, just two years after Dr. James Naismith originated the game at Springfield (Mass.) College.

Track was organized on a conference level at the 1895 SIAA meeting presided over by President Dudley who served until his death in 1914. The first championship meet was held at Vanderbilt May 15, 1896. By 1900 eight of the 13 charter SEC members were participating.

The seven-member SIAA expanded to 19 institutions in 1895 (Alabama, Auburn, Central, Clemson, Cumberland, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mercer, Mississippi State, Nashville, North Carolina, Sewanee, Southwestern Presbyterian, Tennessee, Texas, Tulane and Vanderbilt) and by 1920 there were 30 members.

The larger schools reorganized as the Southern Conference at a meeting in Gainesville Dec. 12-13, 1920. Professor S.V. Sanford of Georgia called the meeting and served as the first president. Charter members of the Southern Conference included: Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi State, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Tennessee, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Washington & Lee.

Despite an original limit of 16, the membership grew to 23 by 1928. In 1922 Florida, Louisiana State, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia Military joined, while Sewanee and Duke became members in 1923 and 1928 respectively. At one time or another the SIAA and the SC included most of the Southern colleges from Virginia to Texas.

The 13 members west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized as the Southeastern Conference at the annual SC meeting of Dec. 8-9, 1932, in Knoxville. The 10 coast members remained in the Southern Conference. Dr. Frank L. McVey of Kentucky was elected president of the new conference whose charter members were: Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Louisiana State, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt. (Sewanee withdrew Dec. 13, 1940, Georgia Tech on June 1, 1964 and Tulane on June 1, 1966). McVey held an informal meeting of the school presidents in Birmingham Feb. 16, 1933, then the first full meeting in Atlanta Feb. 27.

The office of the commissioner was formed in 1940 in Jackson due to the great amount of detail work developing, especially in recruiting and eligibility. Former Mississippi Governor Martin S. Conner took office as commissioner Aug. 21, 1940. Conner later became ill and the secretary of the conference, Dean N.W. Dougherty of Tennessee, served as acting commissioner during the fall of 1946.

The office moved to Birmingham with the appointing of Bernie H. Moore as the second full-time commissioner on Feb. 21, 1948. Moore, a former LSU coach, guided the SEC to national respect in his 18-year tenure.

A.M. (Tonto) Coleman succeeded Moore upon his retirement April 1, 1966. The Alabama native, who was reared in Texas and experienced in athletic coaching and administration, served six and a half years.

Dr. H. Boyd McWhorter, then Dean of Arts and Sciences at Georgia and secretary of the league since 1967, accepted the position upon the retirement of Coleman Aug. 1, 1972. Under his leadership the SEC experienced unparalleled growth. In McWhorter's first year the SEC distributed $1.57 million and 14 years later (1986) the league distributed $15 million in revenue to the member institutions.

Dr. Harvey W. Schiller, an Air Force colonel and faculty chair at the U.S. Air Force Academy, followed McWhorter upon retirement, taking office Sept. 15, 1986. Under his guidance the SEC established itself as a leader in the areas of athletic scholarship and marketing.

Roy F. Kramer succeeded Schiller on Jan. 10, 1990. Kramer, who has served on numerous NCAA committees, joined the league office after spending 12 years as athletic director at Vanderbilt.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1938) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track and field were added. Soccer was added in 1993 and softball began SEC play in 1997. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 11 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (cross country, indoor and outdoor). Women - basketball, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball swimming, tennis, track (cross country, indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

The Southeastern Conference
"The Standard For Excellence"

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 67-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 1998-99 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured ten national titles and three national runner-up finishes. During the decade of the 1990s, the SEC has won 68 national team championships for an average of nearly seven per year.

Arkansas won the conference's first NCAA title of the year in men's cross country. The Razorbacks would go on to win both the men's indoor and men's outdoor national championships. The University of Georgia won four of the SEC's national titles this year. Their titles included, women's swimming, gymnastics, men's golf and men's tennis. The SEC swept the NCAA swimming and diving championships as the Auburn men's team won their second NCAA title in three years. Florida became the first conference women's soccer team to win a national championship.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 13 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 17 of the 20 sports. Eight SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Tennessee winning the Bowl Championship Series national championship. 6 men's and 8 women's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament. Six teams advanced to postseason play in baseball with Alabama moving on to the College World Series. With 146 teams, an average of over six per sport, advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the ten team championships, 36 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 243 individuals were awarded with first-team All- America honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with 1,152 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, the SEC placed six teams in the top 20 of the Sears/NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Georgia led the league with a second-place finish. Florida placed fourth while LSU was 16th, Arkansas and Tennessee tied for 17th and Auburn finished 20th to round out the league's top 20 finishes. Ten of the SEC's 12 schools finished in the top 50 of the Sears Cup Standings. South Carolina (27), Alabama (39), Ole Miss (45) and Kentucky (49) also made the top 50.

A brief sport-by-sport summary of the 1998-99 year follows:

Baseball: The SEC posted another landmark season in baseball this year as the conference had six teams earning selection to NCAA postseason play, all from the Western Division (Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State). Alabama advanced to the College World Series, splitting four games. An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 14 of the last 15 years. Alabama, as the third seed, won the SEC tournament title over top-seeded Arkansas. Arkansas captured its first SEC regular-season title with a 22-8 conference record.

Men's Basketball: The SEC sent six teams to the NCAA Tournament in 1999, matching 1987 as the only years the league sent six squads to the "Big Dance." Three other teams from the SEC also went to post-season play, participating in the NIT. The 1999 NCAA Tournament marked the 10th straight year the SEC had at least one team advance to the Sweet 16 (Auburn, Florida, Kentucky) and the eighth straight time the conference had a team advance to the Elite Eight (Kentucky). Auburn captured its first SEC Championship since 1960 while Kentucky won its 22nd SEC Tournament title. Auburn finished the season ranked fourth in the major polls while Cliff Ellis won conference and national coach of the year honors and Chris Porter was named the league's MVP. Kentucky, Arkansas, Florida and Tennessee also placed in the top 25 in the final polls. The SEC has sent at least half of its members to post-season play for the last 21 consecutive seasons.

Women's Basketball: The SEC continued its tradition of excellence in women's basketball in 1998-99. The league set an NCAA-record with eight teams selected to the NCAA Tournament. Georgia advanced to the Final Four, giving the SEC a representative in the elite group for the seventh straight season. Tennessee advanced to the Elite Eight and LSU went to the Sweet 16. The SEC celebrated its 20th year of women's basketball in 1998-99. Tennessee's Chamique Holdsclaw and Tamika Catchings along with Alabama's Dominique Canty were named first-team All-Americas. Holdsclaw was the consensus National and SEC Player of the Year. LSU's Sue Gunter was the consensus SEC Coach of the Year. Tennessee went through the regular season with just one SEC loss and claimed the league title and also won the SEC Tournament. Arkansas and Ole Miss went to the WNIT with the Lady Razorbacks claiming the tournament title.

Men's Cross Country: Arkansas gave the SEC its first national championship of the 1998-99 season coming in first at the NCAA Cross Country Championships. The Razorbacks first cross country national championship since 1995 marked the ninth NCAA cross country title in school history. Tennessee tied for 21st in the race. Arkansas' men captured their eighth straight SEC crown and their amazing 25th consecutive conference title, dating back to 17 straight Southwest Conference title prior to joining the SEC in 1991.

- The SEC captured 10 national championships, an all-time high for the conference. The SEC won seven national titles in the nine men's sports the league sponsors.
- SEC teams finished second or better in 13 of 20 sports sponsored by the league and in the "Final Four" in 17 of 20 sports.
- Last year, 146 teams participated in NCAA post-season play, SEC student-athletes earned 36 individual national championships, while All-America honors were bestowed on 243 individuals.

Women's Cross Country: Arkansas came in sixth to record the league's best national finish since the Lady Razorbacks placed third in 1993. Florida placed 22nd and Tennessee placed 31st. Led by two-time individual champion Amy Yoder, the Lady Razorbacks won their sixth SEC title, their first since winning five straight SEC crowns from 199-95. Yoder's time of 16:52.22 was the third-fastest 5K time to win the SEC title in conference history.

Football: Tennessee claimed the SEC's 14th National Championship in football and third in the last seven seasons, by defeating Florida State, 23-16, in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Vols were the third different SEC to win the national title since 1992 (Florida-1996; Alabama-1992). The SEC sent an NCAA-record eight teams to post-season bowls and posted a 4-4 record. Four SEC teams were ranked in the final AP and ESPN/USA TODAY polls. After Tennessee (ranked first in both), Florida was fifth in AP and sixth in ESPN/USA TODAY, Georgia was ranekd 14th in both and Arkansas was 16th in AP and 17th in ESPN/USA TODAY. Tennessee head coach Phillip Fulmer won several National Coach of the Year honors. Georgia's Champ Bailey won the Bronko Nagurski Award as the nation's best defender and teammate Quincy Carter was named National Freshman of the Year by several publications. Fulmer was named the SEC Coach of the Year and Kentucky's Tim Couch was named the league's Player of the Year in voting by the league's coaches.

Men's Golf: Georgia won their first national title and the SEC's first since 1993 this year as they finished at 28-over 1,180 at the Hazeltine National Golf Club in Chaska, Minn. Georgia's Ryuji Imada finished tied for second. The Florida Gators finished 12th at the championships. Georgia's Jeremy Parrot and Florida's Steve Scott both finished in the top 25. In addition, the SEC fared well at the NCAA Regionals with five teams advancing to the NCAA Championships. Arkansas finished 8th in the NCAA Central Regional with three individuals in the top 20. In the NCAA East Regional, SouthCarolina finished second, Florida finished third, Georgia was fourth, Ole Miss was ninth and Mississippi State tied for tenth.

Women's Golf: Georgia finished second at the NCAA Championships in Tulsa, OK after a thunderstorm caused the final round to be canceled. Shauna Estes and Reilley Rankin both finished among the top 10 individuals for the Lady Dogs. LSU finished 10th, South Carolina finished 14th and Auburn finished 15th. The SEC had five individuals finish in the top 25.

Along with the NCAA runner-up finish, Georgia also claimed the NCAA East Regional title and won the SEC Championship for the third year in a row. The East Regional title was a school record fifth straight win for the Bulldogs. Six SEC teams competed in the regional with four advancing to the NCAA Championships.

Gymnastics: The University of Georgia won its second NCAA title in as many years with a 196.85 total, outdistancing second-place Michigan (196.550) and third-place Alabama (195.950). Georgia is the second team to win back-to-back women's gymnastics titles. The Gym Dogs are 67-0 over the last two years, having not been outscored since the 1997 NCAA Championships. Georgia finished the 1999 season with a 32-0 record -- the only undefeated team in the country and the first to ever have a perfect record two years in a row. Alabama finished third marking the 11th time in the past 12 years that the Tide has finished in the top-three at the NCAA Championships. In addition, Georgia won its fourth consecutive and tenth overall Southeastern Conference gymnastics championship this year. The SEC boasts 10 first-team All-Americans in gymnastics for 1998.

Soccer: Florida defeated North Carolina 1-0 to win their first NCAA Women's Soccer Championship. It was the conference's first national title in soccer and was won in only the sixth year of NCAA competition in women's soccer for the SEC. Danielle Fotopoulos won the Offensive MVP award while goalkeeper Meredith Flaherty won the Defensive MVP award. Florida gave the Tar Heels their first loss in 46 games. North Carolina came into the game with 70-match unbeaten streak and have won all but three of the NCAA titles since the tournament's inception in 1982. A record six SEC teams advanced to NCAA play this season (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina and Vanderbilt).

Softball: In just its third season of competition in softball, the SEC sent four teams to the NCAA Tournament, the most ever by the SEC. Alabama, Tennessee, South Carolina and LSU represented the league in the NCAA Tournament with the Lady Tigers and Lady Gamecocks advancing to the Regional Semifinals. LSU was the SEC Champion and SEC Tournament Champion, posting a 27-3 conference mark and a 54-8 overall record. South Carolina's Kim Pietro was the SEC Player of the Year and Arkansas' Carie Dever-Boaz was the SEC Coach of the Year.

Men's Swimming & Diving: The Auburn men's swim team won its second NCAA title in three years as Auburn scored 467.5 points. The Tigers won a total of seven events including four of the five relays and three individual events. Auburn finished the meet by setting a new NCAA, NCAA meet and U.S. Open record in the 400 free relay. Brock Newman, Brett Hawke, Aaron Ciarla and Romain Barnier swam a record time of 2:50.90. Tennessee, Florida, Georgia and LSU finished in the top 20. Auburn won its third straight SEC Championship and fifth in six years.

Women's Swimming & Diving: Georgia became only the second SEC women's swim team to win a NCAA team championship as they outdistanced Stanford (441) and SMU (370.5) scoring 504.5 points. Jack Bauerle and Kristy Kowal were named the College Swimming Coaches Association Coach and Swimmer of the Year, respectively, after leading the Lady Bulldogs to the crown. Georgia also won their third SEC Championship in a row scoring 807.5 points.

Men's Tennis: Ten of the 12 SEC teams advanced to NCAA postseason action with six moving on to the round of 16 at the NCAA Men's Tennis Championships. Georgia came from its No.10 seed to shock top-seeded UCLA 4-3 for its third national team title. Florida's Jeff Morrison captured the singles title, the first for the SEC since 1994. LSU came from its No. 4 seed to win its second straight SEC tournament title and tie third-seeded Georgia for the overall title. LSU was the lowest seed to win the SEC Tournament since 1996.

Women's Tennis: In its fifth straight NCAA championship match, Florida fell short of its second straight national title losing 5-2 to Stanford. In an unexpected turn of events, third-seeded Ole Miss upset top-ranked and No. 1 seed Florida 5-4 in the finals to capture the SEC Tournament title. It was the first lost for Florida in 121 consecutive regular-season matches, 70 consecutive matches vs. SEC opponents and 54 consecutive overall matches. It was also the first time since 1990 that the No. 1 seed did not win the tournament.

Men's Indoor Track & Field: The Arkansas Razorbacks clinched their 15th NCAA Indoor Championship. Melvin Lister won the NCAA Triple Jump title with a leap of 55' 0.75". In the 3,000 meters, Michael Power finished second, Sean Kaley was third and Matt Kerr was sixth as the Hogs capped off their title run. It was the Hogs' third-consecutive title and 15th in 16 years. South Carolina finished fourth, LSU finished seventh and Auburn and Tennessee tied for 15th place. The Razorbacks also claimed their seventh SEC Championship scoring 152 points.

Women's Indoor Track & Field: Falling just short of winning its ninth NCAA title, LSU finished second at the NCAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships. Eight other SEC schools scored at the national meet including Florida (4th), Arkansas (13th), Georgia (18th), South Carolina (18th), Tennessee (32nd), Auburn (43rd), Alabama (54th) and Ole Miss (54th). LSU captured its fourth conference title in five years and tenth overall with 114 points. Florida was a close second with 106.5 points.

Men's Outdoor Track & Field: Arkansas continued its track and field dominance by adding yet another NCAA and SEC outdoor titles to its trophy case in 1999. The Razorbacks won their eighth consecutive NCAA outdoor title, scoring 59 points. Auburn (4th), South Carolina (6th), Florida (9th), LSU (9th), Tennessee (12th), Alabama (24th), Ole Miss (32nd), Georgia (65th) and Kentucky (65th) also scored at the national meet. Arkansas' outdoor track supremacy moved to 12 straight national titles and eight straight SEC titles.

Women's Outdoor Track & Field: Georgia was the SEC's top finisher in at the 1999 NCAA Women's Outdoor Track Championships as the Bulldogs scored 37 points for fourth place. LSU was right behind in fifth place with 32 points. Other SEC point scorers were, South Carolina (7th), Florida (17th), Tennessee (20th), Arkansas (41st), and Kentucky (55th). South Carolina won their first SEC title in outdoor track scoring 138 points over second place Florida (123.5 points).

Volleyball: The SEC made it nine straight years of sending at least two teams to NCAA postseason play. This season, Florida, Arkansas and South Carolina all participated in the NCAA Tournament. The Gators made it to the Final Four before being defeated by the eventual champions, Long Beach State. Florida, 35-3, ended up fourth in the USA Today/AVCA Poll. The Gators were undefeated in conference play for the fourth consecutive season earning them the SEC regular season and East Division Championship titles. Florida was also the SEC Tournament Champion, defeating Arkansas in the title game 3-1.

The SEC Office (above) spans half a block and was provided by the city of Birmingham. It is located at 2201 Civic Center Boulevard within the newly-developed City Center. The foyer entrance (left) is highlighted by a two-story glass rotunda. It features school banners, championship pedestals and links the two galleries which display the member institutions' exhibits.

SEC Headquarters

The Southeastern Conference office moved to its current headquarters in downtown Birmingham October 15, 1991.

The two-story structure was designed specifically to house the SEC's 25-person staff as well as accommodate the needs of the various committees, coaches and administrative groups which meet at the conference office on a regular basis. In addition, the office building includes displays honoring the current champion in each of the 20 conference sports, exhibits featuring the 12 member institutions and the league's history as well as a research library.

The multi-faceted operation of the SEC Office includes certifying the eligibility of all student-athletes, managing championship events, enhancing academic opportunities for student-athletes, monitoring NCAA and SEC compliance, coordinating officiating assignments, negotiating television contracts, distributing conference revenue, cultivating corporate sponsorships and coordinating media and public relations efforts.

The SEC headquarters, which contains more than 30,000-square feet of working space, was provided by the city of Birmingham. It is located two blocks from Interstate 59-20, adjacent to the Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center, and is a five-minute drive from the airport.

The office of the commissioner, formed in 1940, was originally located in Jackson, Miss. Upon the appointment of Bernie Moore as commissioner in 1946, the SEC headquarters relocated to Birmingham's Redmont Hotel. In October 1967 the conference office moved to the Central Bank Building in downtown Birmingham, before moving to the Riverchase Galleria Tower in May 1988.

ROY KRAMER
SEC Commissioner

A prominent leader in intercollegiate athletics, Roy Foster Kramer became the sixth commissioner of the Southeastern Conference January 10, 1990.

During his tenure at the helm of the SEC, the conference has experienced unparalleled growth. In 1998-99 alone, the SEC won a conference-record 10 national championships, giving the league a total of 65 in the '90s. Dividing $68.5 million to its member institutions, the SEC again distributed a record amount to its member in 1998-99. Kramer negotiated multi-sport national television packages with CBS and ESPN, featuring football and men's and women's basketball through the 2000-2001 academic year. In 1998, CBS agreed to a multi-year extension of its contract, giving the SEC additional exposure through its national television partner. This year, Kramer spearheaded talks that extented the SEC's contracts with ESPN and Jefferson Pilot, its regional syndication parter for football and men's basketball, through the 2008-09 season.

Within seven months of his appointment, the conference announced plans for expansion, adding Arkansas and South Carolina officially on July 1, 1991. Following expansion, Kramer guided the league in formulating divisional play and the first Division IA conference football championship game. He has since helped secure multi-year bowl agreements for conference teams which qualify for post-season competition. In addition, he has been instrumental in the creation of new scheduling formats for all sports as well as the implementation of coaches educational seminars.

On the national level, Kramer serves as the coordinator of the Bowl Championship Series. He served two terms on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee which selects the 64-team field for the NCAA Tournament and administrates all tournament games. Kramer was chairman of the committee for the 1992 NCAA Tournament. He served a four-year term (1989-93) on the NCAA Basketball Television Negotiating Committee that was responsible for securing the seven-year $1 billion contract with CBS Sports. He was also a member of the NCAA Committee on Infractions from 1988-97.

A member of the NACDA Executive Committee, Kramer also serves on the NCAA Management Council. During his career he has distinguished himself as a member of several other NCAA committees including, the Special Advisory Committee to Review Distribution of Revenue, the Committee for National Drug Testing Policy, the Investment Committee and the Select Committee to Study Intercollegiate Athletics, which proposed the President's Commission. He also served as chairman of the NCAA Men's Committee on Commiittees in 1987 and 1988.

During his 12 years (1978-90) as athletic director at Vanderbilt University, Kramer was a leader in establishing conference policies. He is a past chairman of the league's athletic directors and was influential in bringing the SEC Basketball Tournament to Nashville in 1984, the first sellout in tournament history. In addition Kramer helped land the 1991 SEC Tournament for Vanderbilt, as well as the first and second rounds of the 1982 and 1989 NCAA Tournaments.

Other highlights of his Vanderbilt tenure include a $6 million addition and renovation of McGugin Center, which houses the complete Commodore athletic program and the construction of Vanderbilt Stadium in 1981. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in February, 1989.

After a nine-year stint as a high school head football coach in Michigan, which included three state championships, Kramer joined the coaching staff at Central Michigan University. Just two years later he became the head coach at CMU and compiled an 83-32-2 (.718) record in 11 seasons. In 1974 he was tabbed NCAA National Coach of the Year after guiding the Chippewas to a 12-1 record and the Division II National Championship.

Kramer obtained his bachelor's degree from

Maryville (Tenn.) College in 1953 following a standout career as a football lineman and wrestler. He received the school's Distin-guished Alumnus Award in 1982. He added a master's at the University of Michigan in 1954 and then spent three years in the U.S. Army, rising from a non-commissioned officer to a first lieutenant in the European NATO Command.

The Maryville, Tenn., native was born October 30, 1929. He is married to the former Sara Jo Emert. They have three children (Steve, Sara Gray and Jane) and six grandchildren.

Service • Education • Commitment

The Southeastern Conference distributed approximately $68.5 million to the 12 league institutions in the revenue sharing plans for the 1998-99 fiscal year.

The $68.5 million is the highest total ever distributed in SEC history and represents a 12 percent increase from the $61.2 million distributed to the schools in 1997-98.

The revenue sharing plans include money generated by football television, bowls, the SEC Football Championship, basketball television, the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and NCAA Championships.

Broken down by categories and rounded off, the $68.5 million was derived from $26.3 million for football television, $15.6 million from bowls, $6.8 million from the SEC Football Championship, $6.9 million from basketball television, $3.5 million from the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament and $9.4 million from NCAA Championships.

The average amount distributed to each school which participated in all revenue sharing was $5.7 million.

Not included in the $68.5 million was $11 million retained by the institutions participating in bowls and $600,000 divided among all 12 institutions by the NCAA for academic enhancement.

Previous yearly money distributions, since 1980, are as follows: 1980 ($4.1 million); 1981 ($5.57 million); 1982 ($7.54 million); 1983 ($9.53 million); 1984 ($18.4 million); 1985 ($9.34 million); 1986 ($13.1 million); 1987 ($13.56 million); 1988 ($14.34 million); 1989 ($13.85 million); 1990 ($16.3 million); 1991 ($20.6 million); 1992 ($27.7 million); 1993 ($34.34 million); 1994 ($34.36 million); 1995 ($40.3 million); 1996 ($45.5 million); 1997 ($58.9 million); and 1998 ($61.2 million).

The SEC's financial support of its institution ensures the continued quality of academic and athletic opportunities for student-athletes. The conference has developed the following programs to better serve its membership:

SERVICE

• The SEC established a Community Service Award to honor a male and female student-athlete with a $5,000 scholarship for outstanding service in the community. Currently in its fourth year, the recipients were Kentucky soocer player Carrie Kuhnell and South Carolina basketball player BJ McKie. Kuhnell, a four-time letterwinner on the Wildcat soccer team, assisted in soccer clinics for local Girl Scout groups and other children in the Lexington area. McKie, a four-year starter and three-time Associated Press first-team All-SEC selection, was very active in the Columbia community with the Hepatitis B child immunization program.

More than 300 young people from the Atlanta metro area attended the Football Skills Clinic held in conjunction with the 1998 SEC Football Championship Game.

• The 1998 football season marked the selection of the fifth annual SEC Good Works Team. The 12-man squad, highlighted on Jefferson Pilot's broadcast of the SEC Football Game of the Week, is comprised of players from each school who have shown a commitment to community service. A complete listing follows:

John David Phillips, QB, Alabama
Anthony Lucas, WR, Arkansas
Charles Dorsey, NT, Auburn
Terry Jackson, RB, Florida
Brett Millican, RB, Georgia
Jeff Zurcher, SS, Kentucky
Markeith Spears, FB, LSU
Gary Thigpen, CB, Ole Miss
Eric Allen, C, Mississippi State
Jim Pietrzak, OL, South Carolina
Jeff Hall, PK, Tennessee
O.J. Fleming, TE, Vanderbilt

• The SEC and its corporate partners host youth clinics each year in conjunction with several conference events, including the football championship game, the men's and women's basketball tournaments and the volleyball tournament. These clinics provide children from host cities the opportunity to receive instruction from SEC and other area coaches.

EDUCATION

• The 12 member institutions provide nearly $35 million in scholarships for the more than 4,500 student-athletes each year.

• The SEC, in conjunction with the BellSouth Corporation, annually awards post-graduate scholarships totaling $130,000 to 24 student-athletes.

The top male and female nominee each receive the H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar Athlete Award, named for the league's fourth commissioner, and a $10,000 scholarship. Last year marked the first year 22 additional student-athletes (11 male and 11 female) received $5,000 to continue their education, which guaranteed each school in the SEC would have a male and female scholarship recipient.

Arkansas vollyeball player Jessica Field and Kentucky football player Jeff Zurcher were named the 1998-99 McWhorter Scholar Athletes of the Year. Field maintained a 3.78 grade point average while starting four years on the Lady Razorback volleyball team. Zurcher, a three-year letterman on the Wildcat football team, ended his four years with a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

• The 22 runners-up for the McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the year in 1998-99 were:

Male	Female
Clint Waggoner, Alabama (Football)	Nellie O'Connor, Alabama (Soccer)
Matt Kerr, Arkansas (Cross Country/Track)	Katie Taylor, Auburn (Swimming)
Matt Busbee, Auburn (Swimming)	Erin Baxter, Florida (Soccer)
Shane Seroyer, Florida (Baseball)	Sarah Miller, Georgia (Swimming)
Jon Nordin, Georgia (Basketball)	Mary Elsass, Kentucky (Rifle)
Jonas Samuelsson, LSU (Tennis)	Kristin Schlipf, LSU (Swimming)

Keith Hall, S. Carolina (Track & Field)	Ashley Edlund, S. Carolina (Volleyball)
Adam Engle, Tennessee (Swimming)	Kathy Pesek, Tennessee (Swimming)
James McIntosh, Vanderbilt (Golf)	Kristin Ehst, Vanderbilt (Lacrosse)

JESSICA FIELD
1999 McWhorter Female
Scholar-Athlete of the Year

JEFF ZURCHER
1999 McWhorter Male
Scholar-Athlete of the Year

• The SEC television contract with Jefferson Pilot Sports for football and men's basketball, which has been extended through the 2008-09 season, guarantees at least $80,000 to be distributed to the participating schools through the JP Player of the Game program.

COMMITMENT

• The SEC distributed nearly $600,000 during the 1998-99 academic year from the NCAA Special Assistance Fund for Student-Athletes. This program was implemented to provide financial aid to student-athletes with specific needs such as clothing and shoes, medical or vision care, academic course supplies and family emergencies.

• The SEC was the first conference in the nation to assemble a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Two representatives from each of the SEC member schools are selected to serve on the committee which meets twice a year to discuss issues of concern to the student-athlete.

• The Southeastern Conference is committed to promoting the accomplishments of its student-athletes and coaches involved in the SEC's 20 sports. In 1999-2000, the conference begins its fifth year of SEC-TV, a partnership with FOX Sports Net South, FOX Sports Net Southwest and the Sunshine Network, to provide the most comprehensive regional cable coverage of an intercollegiate conference in the nation.

The SEC-TV project features the following elements: SEC-TV Weekly highlighting seasonal activity of all SEC sports for 41 weeks; "Game of the Week" packages for men's and women's basketball and baseball; extensive event coverage of gymnastics, women's soccer, women's volleyball; and studio update coverage throughout the year. SEC-TV will televise over 165 events and shows, translating into more than 200 hours of original programming.

• The Conference conducts Coaches Orientation Programs twice yearly at the SEC headquarters to supplement existing institutional orientation programs and to enhance the professional development of coaches. The one-day seminars, which began in the summer of 1993, were developed with input from conference compliance coordinators, faculty athletics representatives, athletic directors and the student-athlete advisory committee. Topics of discussion range from the role of the SEC and NCAA to the role of athletics in higher education.

• The annual SEC Summer Workshop is designed to review administrative procedures of the conference. Topics addressed include financial aid, criteria for satisfactory progress, squad lists and eligibility rules. Participants include: faculty athletic representatives, senior women's administrators, directors of financial aid, admissions directors, registrars and compliance coordinators.

SEC Awards

McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year

Each year the SEC, in conjunction with the BellSouth Corporation, provides the league's male and female H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Award winners with a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship. Beginning with the 1998-99 season, 22 male and female finalists for the award each receive $5,000 post-graduate scholarships.

The award recipients are chosen by a committee of Faculty Athletics Representatives from the 12 SEC institutions. The award is named for former SEC Commissioner H. Boyd McWhorter.

SEC Football Television Partners

The 1999 season marks the fourth year for CBS as the league's national network television partner. CBS will televise 12 games per year through the 2000 season, 10 of which involve two conference teams. CBS will normally broadcast its SEC games in the late afternoon window beginning at 3:30 p.m. ET. Beginning in the 2001 college football season, CBS will expand its coverage of SEC football, providing exclusive national network broadcasts of conference home games during the season. The contract extension, announced in February of 1998, goes through the 2008 season.

ESPN/ESPN2, the SEC's national cable provider, may televise 12-16 regular season games each year, with a minimum of nine on ESPN through the 2001 college football season. The SEC and ESPN recently announced an extension of its contract through the 2008 college football season. Following the 2001 season, ESPN/ESPN2 may televise up to 18 football games per year.

The SEC Championship Game will be televised by ABC through the 2000 season. ABC has been the SEC Championship Game rights holder since the game's inception in 1992. For the fourth straight year, ABC will broadcast the SEC title game during prime time. Kickoff for the 1999 event will be 8 p.m. EST.

Jefferson-Pilot Sports will continue its highly successful SEC Football Game of the Week package through 2008. The Charlotte, N.C., company holds the rights to televise 13 games annually throughout the nine-state SEC region on a syndicated basis. The games will be broadcast in the early afternoon time period beginning at 12:30 p.m. ET.

Selection Process

All television games that have not been selected prior to the start of the season, will be chosen 12 days in advance (Monday prior to actual game week). This process will begin with contests scheduled for broadcast on September 25.

During its six seasons of airing SEC football, JP Sports has averaged more than 2.5 million viewers per game through its network of 50 television stations. Dave Neal will begin his first season as the play-by-play voice while Dave Rowe returns as analyst for SEC football on JP Sports.

19 SEC 98
CHAMPIONSHIP™

The Southeastern Conference Football Championship Game has been synonymous with exciting games and close finishes. The 1998 SEC Championship Game was no different.

Behind 14-10 midway through the fourth quarter, Tennessee scored two late touchdowns to hold off a tenacious Mississippi State squad, 24-14, before a sellout crowd of 74,795 and a national television audience (ABC).

The win by Tennessee enabled the Vols to stay undefeated for the season and participate in the National Championship Game at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In that contest, Tennessee defeated Florida State, 23-16, to win the national title.

Midway through the final quarter, MSU's Kevin Prentiss returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown to put the Bulldogs ahead, 14-10. A sudden sense of urgency hit the Vols as their chances for a national championship were riding on the result of the SEC title tilt.

On UT's following drive, QB Tee Martin drove the Vols down the field and hit WR Peerless Price with a 41-yard TD pass with 6:15 left to give Tennessee a 17-14 lead.

Miiss. State fumbled on the first play of the next drive, giving the ball back to Tennessee at the MSU 26-yard line. All it took was one play for Martin to find Cedric Wilson for a 26-yard TD pass to give the Vols the final 24-14 margin.

Miss. State's Robert Bean intercepted a Tee Martin pass and returned it 70 yards for the game's first score. In the second quarter, Travis Stephens capped a UT scoring drive with a two-yard run. Jeff Hall added a 31-yard field goal to make the halftime score, 10-7 Vols.

The Bulldogs played in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl, falling to Texas, 38-11.

Price was the game's Most Valuable Player, with six catches for 97 yards and a touchdown. He also returned two kickoffs for 55 yards.

Tennessee quarterback Tee Martin directed the Vols to an SEC Championship and a National Championship in 1998.

Another sellout crowd of 74,795 witnessed Tennessee's 24-14 win over Mississippi State in the seventh annual SEC Football Championship Game.

SEC Presence in the NFL

Tennessee's Carl Pickens will go past the 500 career reception plateau this season with the Cincinnati Bengals. Pickens enters the 1999 NFL season with a string of 61 consecutive games with at least one reception.

As the National Football League kicked off the 1998 season, 202 players with Southeastern Conference ties had secured spots on an opening day roster of one of the 30 NFL squads. The SEC led all Division I-A Conferences in NFL participation, while the Pacific-10 was second with 200 players.

The SEC boasted a total of 202 former standouts on opening day active rosters, a listing of each NFL team's who dressed out for the opening day. The Chicago Bears and Philadelphia Eagles enlisted the talents of a conference-high 12 players while the New Orleans Saints, Kansas City Chiefs and Green Bay Packers each had 11 former SEC stars on its rosters.

THROUGH THE YEARS

During its 67-year history, SEC teams have won 14 national championships and have posted 26 undefeated and untied regular seasons. The SEC has appeared in more bowl games (292) and won more bowl games (144) than any other conference. During the decade of the 1990s, the SEC has a 277-96-5 (.739) record against non-conference foes, the best mark in the nation.

National Champions

Southeastern Conference teams have won 14 national championships (AP, UPI, USA Today/CNN, USA Today/ESPN, Football Writers Association). Alabama headlines the league with seven titles - 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979 and 1992. Tennessee was the first conference squad to capture the national crown in 1951. Auburn ruled supreme in 1957, while LSU followed in 1958. Ole Miss stood atop the land in 1960 and Georgia earned the distinction in 1980. Arkansas, which joined the SEC in 1991, captured the 1964 national title (FWAA). Florida won the national title in 1996 and Tennessee was the last SEC team to earn the nation title, doing so last season.

*Appointed Conference Games

While the SEC rule requiring six football games with member schools was in effect, 16 games with outside schools were appointed to serve as conference games to avoid a violation for the members. The won-lost records of these games are included in the annual conference standings, but the results are not included in the conference point totals.

THE RECORD BOOK

The reliance among the SEC schools on the passing game continues to grow. In the SEC Record Book, 17 of the top 20 passers in single-season yardage are from this decade. With quarterbacks such as Alabama's Andrew Zow, Arkansas' Clint Stoerner, Florida's Doug Johnson, Georgia's Quincy Carter, Ole Miss' Romaro Miller, Miss. State's Wayne Madkin and Tennessee's Tee Martin returning for 1999, the passing game in the SEC remains in solid shape.

Kentucky's Dicky Lyons ran back kicks for a league-record 235 yards vs. LSU in 1967 and tallied the SEC's fourth-best career kick return mark with 2,253 yards.

Bobby Wilson, a standout performer at Ole Miss from 1946-49, owns a share of the SEC career interceptions record with 20. He returned those thefts for a league-record 379 yards.

Georgia's Eric Zeier, the SEC's career passing leader, along with Florida's Shane Matthews and Danny Wuerffel, Tennessee's Peyton Manning and Kentucky's Tim Couch are the only players in conference history to throw for 3,000 yards in consecutive seasons.

Vanderbilt's Kurt Page was the first quarterback in SEC history to pass for more than 3,000 yards in a season. He twice led the league in total offense.

LSU's Tommy Hodson, a four-time All-SEC selection, is the only quarterback to pass for more than 2,000 yards in four straight seasons.

Mississippi State quarterback John Bond became only the second player in NCAA history to pass for 4,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards in a career.

Kentucky QB Bill Ransdell had over 1,800 yards of total offense during the 1984 season.

Alabama QB Mike Shula had over 1,500 yards of total offense during the 1986 season and helped lead the Tide to a 9-3 season, including a Sun Bowl victory.

A sellout crowd of 83,091 jammed Birmingham's Legion Field for the first SEC Football Championship Game. An interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter provided the deciding margin as Alabama edged Florida 28-21 in the inaugural contest.

SEC Championship Games

1992 SEC Championship Game
Alabama 28, Florida

The Southeastern Conference etched its mark in the college football history books on Dec. 5, 1992. The league became the first in Division I-A to stage a championship game between its two division winners.

Western Division Champion Alabama and Eastern Division co-Champion Florida provided plenty of fireworks as the Crimson Tide posted a 28-21 victory before a capacity crowd of 83,091 at Legion Field in Birmingham.

The game, which was televised nationally by ABC Sports and earned a 9.8 rating, was not decided until the final minutes. With the Gators facing first-and-10 at their own 21, Alabama cornerback Antonio Langham returned an interception 27 yards for the game-winning score. The play, which came with just 3:16 remaining, earned Langham Most Valuable Player honors and thwarted the debut of a tie-breaking system in Division I-A football.

The victory secured Alabama the role of host at the USF&G Sugar Bowl. On Jan. 1, 1993, the second-ranked Crimson Tide handed No. 1 Miami a 34-13 defeat to capture the SEC's 12th national crown.

1993 SEC Championship Game
Florida 28, Alabama 13

The SEC staged its second annual Championship Football Game on Dec. 4, 1993, with Eastern Division Champion Florida defeating Western Division winner Alabama, 28-13, in front of a crowd of 76,345 at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Gators were led by quarterback Terry Dean, who passed for 256 yards and two touchdowns en route to Championship Game Most Valuable Player honors. After virtually three quarters of neck-and-neck football, and the Gators leading by one, 14-13, Florida was faced with a fourth-and-eight situation. Punter Shayne Edge kept the drive alive with a 20-yard spring, and on the next play, Dean hit wideout Jack Jackson with a 43-yard strike to give Florida an eight- point cushion. From there, the Florida defense held its ground and the Gators secured the victory.

The victory secured Florida as the host of the USF&G Sugar Bowl. On Jan. 1, 1994, the eight-ranked Gators defeated West Virginia, 41-7, in New Orleans to win their first Sugar Bowl title.

1994 SEC Championship Game
Florida 24, Alabama 23

Atlanta was the site of the 1994 SEC Football Championship, as a Georgia Dome record 74,751 watched Eastern Division Champion Florida capture its second straight conference crown with a 24-23 victory over Western Division Champion Alabama.

The Gators effectively moved the ball through the air, as Danny Wuerffel connected on 23 of 41 passes for 227 yards and a pair of touchdowns. But at the conclusion of the hard-fought contest, it was Florida defensive standout Ellis Johnson who distinguished himself as the game's most valuable player. The rugged senior recorded five tackles, one pass breakup and an SEC Championship record three tackles behind the line of scrimmage, including two quarterback sacks.

Trailing 17-10 at the half, Alabama regained the lead, 23-17, with two third-quarter field goals and an interception return for a touchdown with less than nine minutes to play. Florida responded with an 80-yard, 10-play drive which ended with a two-yard touchdown pass from Wuerffel to Chris Doering with just 5:29 remaining in the fourth quarter. The extra point by Judd Davis secured the winning margin, as the Gator defense forced an interception on the final Alabama drive.

The SEC's third title game attracted a television audience of more than 30 million viewers. ABC's broadcast earned a 10.5 rating, marking the network's most-watched college football game since the 1991 season.

1995 SEC Championship Game
Florida 34, Arkansas 3

A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome witnessed Eastern Division Champion Florida defeat Western Division Champion Arkansas, 34-3, in the fourth annual SEC Championship Game.

The Gators, who went through the regular season undefeated, continued its dominance on this night. Florida outgained the Razorbacks, 396-299, and committed no turnovers, while forcing Arkansas into four giveaways.

Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.

The Gators took the ensuing kickoff and went 80 yards in seven plays, capped off when game MVP Danny Wuerffel connected with Chris Doering on a 22-yard touchdown pass. Florida would never look back.

Leading 24-3 in the third quarter, the Gator defense got into the act. Florida nicklebacker Ben Hanks took an errant fumble and ran the pigskin back 95 yards for a touchdown.

The SEC's fourth title game attracted a television audience of over 25 million viewers. ABC's broadcast earned a 7.2 rating.

1996 SEC Championship Game
Florida 45, Alabama 30

A sellout crowd of 74,132 witnessed an offensive explosion in the fifth annual SEC Championship Game, with Eastern Division champion Florida downing Western Division champion Alabama, 45-30.

The Gators, went on to the Nokia Sugar Bowl, defeating Florida State, 52-20, and claiming their first national championship.

Quarterback Danny Wuerffel, the game's Most Valuable Player, threw for an SEC Championship Game record 401 yards and six touchdowns against a Crimson Tide defense that was ranked sixth in the nation in total defense coming into the contest.

Wuerffel's favorite target was wide receiver Reidel Anthony, who caught 11 aerials for 171 yards and three touchdowns - all three numbers were game records.

Alabama got on the scoreboard first on a 36-yard touchdown pass from Freddie Kitchens to Dennis Riddle. The Gators went on to score 24 straight points in building up a 24-14 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, the two teams traded touchdowns, including two long scoring plays. With 4:06 left in the third quarter, Kitchens hit receiver Michael Vaughn with a 94-yard strike, the longest play from scrimmage in SEC Championship Game history. Within a minute (57 seconds to be exact), Wuerffel retalliated for the Gators, hitting Jacquez Green with a 85-yard touchdown pass.

Florida added a touchdown in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

The SEC's fifth title game attracted a television audience of 25.8 million viewers. ABC's broadcast earned a 7.0 rating. The average rating of the SEC Championship Game in its five years has been 8.5 with over 138 million viewers.

1997 SEC Championship Game
Tennessee 30, Auburn 29

Yet another SEC Championship Game went down to the wire in 1997, when Tennesee defeated Auburn, 30-29.

Before a Georgia Dome Sporting Event record crowd of 74,896, the Vols came from a 20-7 second quarter deficit to defeat the Tigers on Peyton Manning's 73-yard TD pass to Marcus Nash early in the fourth quarter.

A defensive struggle ensued and the Vols were off to the FedEx Orange Bowl to play for the Bowl Alliance National Championship while the Tigers returned to Atlanta to play in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

The Vols got on the scoreboard first on a 40-yard TD pass from Manning to Peerless Price. However, that was all the scoring Tennessee could muster until a Jeff Hall 27-yard field goal midway through the second quarter.

In the meantime, Auburn accounted for 20 unanswered points, led by a 24-yard fumble return by Brad Ware and a 51-yard TD pass from Dameyune Craig to Tyrone Goodson. AU's Jaret Holmes also hit two field goals.

After the two teams traded touchdowns midway through the third quarter, Tennessee mounted its charge. Behind 27-17, UT scored on a 46-yard pass from Manning to Price. On the PAT attempt, Auburn's Quinton Reese returned the blocked kick for a two-point conversion to pull the Vols to within six, 29-23.

That set up the heroics on Nash's 73-yard TD reception from Manning and Hall's PAT that won the game for Tennessee.

The game's MVP was UT quarterback Peyton Manning, who completed 25 of 43 passes for 373 yards with four TDs and two interceptions.

1998 SEC Championship Game
Tennessee 24, Mississippi State 14

Behind 14-10 midway through the fourth quarter, Tennessee scored two late touchdowns to hold off a tenacious Mississippi State squad, 24-14, before a sellout crowd of 74,795 and a national television audience (ABC).

The win by Tennessee enabled the Vols to stay undefeated for the season and participate in the National Championship Game at the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In that contest, Tennessee defeated Florida State, 23-16, to win the national title.

Midway through the final quarter, MSU's Kevin Prentiss returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown to put the Bulldogs ahead, 14-10. A sudden sense of urgency hit the Vols as their chances for a national championship were riding on the result of the SEC title tilt.

On UT's following drive, QB Tee Martin drove the Vols down the field and hit WR Peerless Price with a 41-yard TD pass with 6:15 left to give Tennessee a 17-14 lead.

Miiss. State fumbled on the first play of the next drive, giving the ball back to Tennessee at the MSU 26-yard line. All it took was one play for Martin to find Cedric Wilson for a 26-yard TD pass to give the Vols the final 24-14 margin.

The Bulldogs played in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl, falling to Texas, 38-11.

Price was the game's Most Valuable Player, with six catches for 97 yards and a touchdown. He also returned two kickoffs for 55 yards.

SEC Heisman Trophy Winners

1942 — FRANK SINKWICH
Georgia Halfback

Frank Sinkwich became the first player from the Southeastern area to win the coveted Heisman Trophy, winning the award in 1942, the year he led Georgia to an 11-1 record and a 9-0 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl. Sinkwich led the nation in rushing in 1941 and total offense in 1942. His individual performance in the 1942 Orange Bowl (a 40-26 victory over TCU) is still regarded as the best one-man showing in that New Year's Day Classic. Against the Horned Frogs, Sinkwich completed nine of 13 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns, rushed for 139 yards including a 43-yard TD run, for 382 yards of total offense. Nicknamed "Flatfoot Frankie," Sinkwich received his Heisman Trophy while in his Marine uniform. A long-time businessman in Athens, Sinkwich died Oct. 22, 1990.

1959 — BILLY CANNON
LSU Halfback

A rare combination of strength and speed, LSU's Billy Cannon became the SEC's second Heisman winner in 1959. In the Tigers' heart-stopping 7-3 win over Ole Miss in 1959, Cannon, who ran the 100-yard dash in 9.4 and threw the shot put 54-4 for the LSU track team, entered his name in college football folklore with an 89-yard punt return in the fourth quarter for the winning points. However, it was a dramatic goal line stand in the final seconds with Cannon making the game-saving tackle that preserved the LSU win. Although renowned for his offensive skills, Cannon's contemporaries claim he was a better defender. He also averaged 40.3 yards per punt as a college star. Cannon had a successful 11-year pro career with the Houston Oilers, Oakland Raiders and Kansas City Chiefs. Today, Cannon is a dentist in Baton Rouge.

1966 — STEVE SPURRIER
Florida Quarterback

Another skilled all-around player, Florida's Steve Spurrier earned his Heisman Trophy in 1966, edging Purdue's Bob Griese for the coveted award. In his Gator career, Spurrier completed 392 of 692 for 4,848 yards and 37 touchdowns, while rushing for 442 yards. He led his 1966 Gator team to a 9-2 record, including a 27-12 victory over Georgia Tech in the 1967 Orange Bowl. However, it was the 1966 Sugar Bowl that enhanced Spurrier's image nationwide, when he led a fourth-quarter rally against Missouri which fell two points shy. Trailing 20-0 entering the final period, Spurrier led the Gators to three touchdowns; unfortunately for Florida all three attempts at two point plays were unsuccessful. As a professional, Spurrier played for the San Francisco 49ers, Minnesota Vikings and Tampa Bay Bucs. He now serves as the head coach at his alma mater.

1971 — PAT SULLIVAN
Auburn Quarterback

In his brilliant three-year career at Auburn, Pat Sullivan guided an offensive team that averaged 34.4 points and 425.8 yards per game. While a junior, he led the nation in total offense with 285.6 yards per game before going on to win the Heisman his senior year. Sullivan became the first Heisman recipient ever to play at a school where John Heisman (for whom the trophy is named) coached. In his three-year career, Sullivan accounted for 71 touchdowns (18 running and 53 passing) for a then-national record. Winner of the MVP Award in the 1971 Gator Bowl, Sullivan went on to play professionally for the Atlanta Falcons, Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers. After serving as president of his own tire company in Birmingham, Ala., and color analyst on the Auburn Radio Network, he returned to Auburn in 1986 to serve as an assistant coach to Pat Dye. He enters his sixth season as head coach at TCU in 1997.

SEC Heisman Trophy Winners

1982 — HERSCHEL WALKER
Georgia Tailback

Georgia's Herschel Walker, third in the Heisman voting in 1980 and second in 1981, continued his progression toward the trophy in 1982, winning easily over Stanford's John Elway. Leading the Bulldogs to a three-year record of 33-3, including a perfect 12-0 National Championship season in 1980, Walker finished third on the all-time rushing list in the NCAA with a three-year total of 5,259 yards, finishing behind Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett (6,082) and Southern Cal's Charles White (5,598), both of whom needed four years to reach their figures. During his Georgia career, Walker set 10 NCAA records, 15 SEC records, and 30 Georgia records. He also starred at track, running a 10.1 100-meter dash and a 6.18 60-yard dash. Walker is now playing professional football with the Philadelphia Eagles after playing with the Dallas Cowboys, Minnesota Vikings and the New Jersey Generals in the USFL.

1985 — BO JACKSON
Auburn Tailback

A gifted athlete, Auburn's Vincent "Bo" Jackson became the sixth SEC player to claim the Heisman Trophy, winning the award over Iowa's Chuck Long in the closest balloting ever. Rarely have the nation's sports fans witnessed such a talented player. He became the Southeastern Conference's first three-sport letterman in two decades, claiming monograms in football, baseball and track.

As a football player, Jackson gained 4,303 yards in his career, averaging 6.6 yards per carry, an SEC record. During his Auburn career, Jackson was MVP in four different bowl games, winning honors for his play in the Tangerine, Sugar, Liberty and Cotton Bowl.

During his Heisman-winning season, Jackson led the SEC in rushing (162.4 yards per game), scoring (102 points), and all-purpose running (169.0 yards per game).

Continuing his multi-sport pursuits as a professional, Jackson plays baseball for the California Angels. He earned MVP honors at the 1990 Major League All-Star Game while playing for the Kansas City Royals. A hip injury ended his football career in 1991 after playing with the Los Angeles Raiders.

1996 — DANNY WUERFFEL
Florida Quarterback

The University of Florida's brilliant and exciting quarterback, Danny Wuerffel was selected as the 62nd winner of the Heisman Trophy in 1996. Wuerffel guided Florida to the National Championship his senior season and passed for 3,625 yards, 39 touchdowns and only 13 intereceptions during that year. For his career he completed 708 of 1170 for 10,875 yards with 114 touchdowns, while setting 4 NCAA, 12 SEC and 32 Florida records. His career pass efficiency rating of 163.56 is the best in major college history as well as his TD/interception ratio. Wuerffel is the first Heisman Trophy winner to play under a head coach who had also won the award, with Steve Spurrier claiming the coveted trophy in 1966. Wuerffel also became the first QB to win four SEC championships and is the first player to win both the Heisman Trophy and the Draddy Scholarship Trophy (1996) presented to the nation's premier football scholar-athlete.

AFCA Honorees

AFCA Academic Achievement Award Winners

The American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award has been presented annually by the Touchdown Club of Memphis, Tenn., to the school with the highest graduation rate among members of its football team. The College Football Association presented the award from 1981-97.

Kentucky captured the SEC's first award in 1989 by graduating 90 percent of its incoming class of 1983. UK reported that 18 of 20 football players who began classes in 1983 completed degree requirements.

Seven league member institutions have earned honorable mention distinction since 1987, including Florida, Kentucky, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. In 1995 Mississippi State, South Carolina, and Vanderbilt received honorable mention status for registering graduation reports of 70 percent or higher.

According to CFA survey results, the overall graduation rate of its member schools has shown a significant increase in the last several years. In 1986 the CFA membership graduated 41.6 percent of its football players, compared to a rate of 58.6 percent in 1995.

Bowl Games are College Football

Bowl games following a college football season have been a tradition since 1902, when the Rose Bowl was first held in Pasadena, Cal.

Fast forward to 1999. This season, there will be 23 post-season bowl games, from the 86th Annual Rose Bowl, to the first-year Mobile Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

During those 97 years, millions of fans, hundreds of thousands of student-athletes, coaches and staff have been a part of the bowl experience. It's an experience that is truly college football.

AN ENJOYABLE EXPERIENCE

College football bowl games offer a participating institution - its student-athletes, coaches, staff and fans - an unforgettable experience that will produce memories that will last a lifetime.

COMMUNITY PRIDE

Bowl games are rallying points for their communities. Every year, communities around the country are in the spotlight when national media, participating institutions and college football fans come to visit.

To the groups of local volunteers hosting these bowl games, it is a chance to let their community shine like never before. Whether it's the head coach or the reserve lineman or the student trainer, everyone is treated like royalty.

BOWL GAMES MAKE GREAT TOURIST DESTINATIONS

College football fans know the way to celebrate the holidays is a visit to a post-season bowl game.

During last season's bowl games, over 1.2 million fans attended 22 bowl games, an increase of more than three percent over 1997-98. The average capacity of the 22 bowl games was at 88.8 percent.

Since 1980, an average of 55,520 fans have attended 356 bowl games.

BOWL GAMES GIVE BACK TO PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS AND THE COMMUNITY

Last year, 22 bowl games distributed more than $140 million to 44 participating schools.

During the 86 years in which there has been post-season competition, more than $1.2 billion dollars have been distributed to higher education and more than 40 percent of that total ($520 million) has been distributed in the last five years.

These bowl games have been lightning rods for their communities. Hosting a bowl game can mean an annual impact between $80-$150 million into the bowl site's local economy. A signficant part of that money goes to local charities.

Last season, more than 3,300 student-athletes experienced a post-season bowl game. These student-athletes took time to visit area landmarks and children's hospitals, participated in clinics and spoke to youth groups.

BOWL GAMES DO DETERMINE NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Every year, bowl games have determined the national championship. And, starting last year, the Bowl Championship Series guarantees one game to determine the national champion.

BOWL GAMES ARE COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Bowl games add to the pageantry, color and excitement of college football. Bowl games bring a measure of importance to the regular season not seen in other sports. Bowl games are fitting conclusions for winning teams to end their season. Bowl games are college football!

SEC Bowl Notes

• Four SEC teams were ranked in the final AP and ESPN/USA TODAY polls. Tennessee was ranked the highest, claiming the national championship in both polls. Florida was the next highest, ranked fifth in AP and sixth in ESPN/USA TODAY. Georgia was 14th in both polls and Arkansas was 16th in AP and 17th in the final ESPN/USA TODAY poll.

• For the 13th time in its history and the fourth time in the 1990s, the Southeastern Conference sent at least six of its teams to post-season bowls. Last season, the SEC sent a NCAA-record eight teams to post-season play. In 1992 and 1995, the SEC had six of its teams in post-season play. Twice, in 1974 and 1982, the SEC had seven teams in post-season bowls. Including 1998-99, the SEC has had 292 teams in post-season bowls, the most of any conference.

•During the decade of the 1980s the SEC was the only conference to have every member participate in a bowl game. In addition, nine of the league's 10 schools played in at least two postseason events. Overall the SEC led all conferences during the decade with 56 bowl appearances. The Big Ten was second with 45 as the Southwest and Pac-10 tied for third with 35. The Big Eight (31), Atlantic Coast (25) and Western Athletic (21) rounded out the list.

• On eight different occasions, current members of the SEC have competed against one another in bowl games. Ole Miss leads the pack with five bowls against conference foes and Auburn is next with three. Florida, LSU and Tennessee have each squared off against SEC teams twice, while Alabama and Vanderbilt have once. A complete list of SEC vs. SEC bowl games follows:
1955 Gator Bowl- Vanderbilt 25, Auburn 13
1958 Gator Bowl- Ole Miss 7, Florida 3
1960 Sugar Bowl- Ole Miss 21, LSU 0
1964 Sugar Bowl- Alabama 12, Ole Miss 7
1965 Liberty Bowl - Ole Miss 13, Auburn 7
1969 Gator Bowl- Florida 14, Tennessee 13
1971 Gator Bowl- Auburn 35, Ole Miss 28
1972 Bluebonnet Bowl - Tennessee 24, LSU 17

• The Southeastern Conference sent an NCAA-high eight teams to post-season play in the 1998-99 bowl season. Previously, seven teams had gone to post-season play six times, including twice by the SEC in 1982-83 and 1974-75. Below is a breakdown of most trips to bowls by conferences in a single-season:
8 - SEC (1998-99).
7 - Big 12 (1998-99); Big Ten (1997-98); Big Ten (1996-97); Big Ten (1993-94); SEC (1982-83); SEC (1983-84); SEC (1974-75).6 - Pac-10 (1997-98); SEC (1997-98); SEC (1995-96); Big Ten (1995-96); SEC (1992-93); Pac-10 (1992-93); Big Ten (1990-91); Pac-10 (1986-87); Big Ten (1985-86).

SEC BOWL REVENUE DISTRIBUTION

(A) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance of less than $2,000,000 (two million), the participating institution shall retain the first $600,000 plus 20% of the balance. The remainder shall be remitted to the Commissioner and will be divided into 12 equal shares with one share to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions.

(B) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance between $2,000,000 and $5,999,999, the participating institution shall retain the first $800,000 plus 20% of the balance. The remainder shall be remitted to the Commissioner and will be divided into 12 equal shares, with one share to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions.

(C) For bowl games providing receipts which result in a balance of more than $6,000,000, the participating institution shall receive $2,500,000 ($2,600,000 if SEC team is a participant in the Bowl Championship Series bowl which determines the national championship). The remainder shall be divided into 12 equal shares, with one share to the Conference and one share to each of the other 11 institutions. Should two teams from the SEC be selected to play in the Bowl Championship Series, each participating team shall receie $2,500,000 ($2,600,000 if the SEC team is a participant in the BCS game which determines the National Championship). The remainder shall be divided into 12 equal shares, with one share to the Conference and one share to each of the 11 institutions. The two participating institutions share from the respective BCS bowls shall be combined and divided evenly between the two participating teams.

(D) Institutions which participate in an Alliance Bowl shall receive an additional $150 per mile, one way.

(Participating institution does not share in the distribution shares.)

NOTE: Poll was compiled by Charles Woodroof, former SEC Assistant Director of Media Relations. The AP (Writers and Broadcasters) Poll began in 1936. From 1936 to 1961 the wire service ranked 20 teams. From 1962 to 1967 only 10 teams were recognized. From 1968 to 1988 AP again resumed its Top 20 before expanding to 25 teams in 1989. Points were awarded based on a team's finish in the final AP poll each year. Points were awarded on a 20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis from 1936 to 1988, and a 25-24-23-22-21-20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis 1989 to the present.

COACHES

Last season, Tennessee's Phillip Fulmer was named National Coach of the Year by the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and College Sports News. Arkansas coach Houston Nutt was also named National Coach of the Year by Football News. Fulmer directed the Vols to the National Championship in 1998 while Nutt coached the Razorbacks to a 9-3 record and a CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl berth.

Corporate Marketing Program

The Southeastern Conference Corporate Partner Program started in 1988 with three companies dedicated to intercollegiate athletics and higher education. The program is supported by 10 of the nation's top corporations, which provide a commitment of dollars, manpower and expertise to benefit college athletics.

The program's mission is to develop marketing and promotional activities that benefit the member institutions of the SEC and the corporate partners, to emphasize the positive role of athletics in our society and to provide funding for the SEC Youth Clinics, championship events and academic enhancement programs. Each member institution is a direct beneficiary of this program.

The SEC Corporate Partners support numerous SEC Championships by purchasing championship media, providing products and services and promoting the championships locally and regionally.

Current SEC Corporate Partners include Baptist Health System of Alabama, BellSouth, Chick-fil-A, Dr Pepper, Gatorade, Golden Flake, Greyhound, Red Lobster, Regions Bank and Valvoline.

SEC Licensing Program

The Southeastern Conference markets its registered marks (Southeastern Conference, SEC, SEC Seal and SEC logos) through a licensing program with the Collegiate Licensing Company. The SEC began its licensing program in 1988 to protect the use of its name and insignias and to ensure that its member institutions benefit from the use and sale of items bearing its name and/or logos.

The program also ensures that manufacturers and retailers market only the highest-quality merchandise using the conference name and logos. The SEC has joined a consortium of universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially-licensed collegiate products.

Consumers can tell if the merchandise is authorized by looking for the label which says, "Officially Licensed Collegiate Products."
